

Birmingham Music Festival

2019 Classes

All classes at Birmingham music festival are for pianoforte solo.

Please note that each entrant can enter any number of classes for which they are eligible. PARENTS and/or TEACHERS ENTERING CHILDREN should bear in mind that it can be a stressful experience for a child to enter multiple classes in a high quality competitive festival.

'Open' classes are open to any age group.

All categories are 'own choice' of music - the Grade Classes (Classes 6 - 9) must have music from the relevant current grade syllabuses for the Associated Board, Trinity College London or London College of Music.

Grade Classes (Classes 6 - 9)

- Grade limits refer both to the music performed and the skills of the performer.
- Players should not play repeats in the Grade classes (classes 6 - 9), except for DC and DS indications.

Repeats

- Repeats may be played in classes (other than grade classes) provided that the time limit is not exceeded.

We request that players playing dance movements should be entered for the Dance or March Class 16. Nevertheless these pieces will continue to be accepted in other appropriate classes.

Please note that classes 11, 12, 13, 15 and 18 require an original piece of keyboard music to be performed. Arrangements are not permitted, even if made by the original composer except in Classes 1 to 10 and Class 15.

PLEASE NOTE:

> Classes will take place on Saturday or Sunday, 12 or 13 October 2018. Players must be prepared to come on either day, or possibly on both days if playing in more than one class. We will confirm by email a personal schedule of your performance day and start times once all entries have been received and the Festival schedule drafted.
